

Kiwaniis®

Kiwanis Club of Madison West - Kiwanogram

Guests: Elton Aberle, Meg Galloway, Jerry Schwoch and Tom Smith, members of the Madison Downtown Kiwanis Club. With four members in attendance, this is a successful interclub.

Program: Harold Green deserves a very special THANK YOU for agreeing to provide a special program with very little pre-meeting notice. Phil Hands, who was scheduled to provide our program, declined to present his program due to Covid just three days before our meeting.

Harold presented a program on Aviation. He has a extensive history in Aviation. He has approximately 11,000 hours of flying, which includes nearly 8,000 hours as a trainer. Harold has become a instrument and multi-engine instructor.

Harold described three types of aviation: Military, Airline and General Aviation. He focused on General Aviation, which includes: personal. charter, corporate, crop dusting, fire fighting and others.

Harold Green is thanked by Ken Saville for the 'Aviation' program.

Harold Green, chair of the MWK Membership committee, reminded members of our membership plan. We are transitioning into phase 2. Phase one of plan was to have each member place two wanted posters on high trafficked public bulletin boards and invite two potential members to a meeting this year. Phase 2 will be to implement the Kiwanis International two for two program and schedule two presentations to community groups per month.

Plans for 2023-24 Adaptive Ski Program have begun. Applications are due December 15, 2023. Interviews are in January, 2024. Skiers travel to Durango during late February. Posters are available from Dennis Keeney.
